

Theological Musings from Dave's Laptop

March 10, 2020

After our choir sang “Lord, You’re Holy,” two weeks ago,¹ and before he read the morning Scripture, Pastor Andrew commented, “Sometimes, you just need to ‘Call the Roll.’”

It took me a moment to understand what he meant, but Andrew was talking about the part of “Lord, You’re Holy” that celebrates some of the Names of our God:

Wonderful, glorious, holy and righteous,
victorious, Conqueror, triumphant and mighty,
Healer, Deliverer, Shield and Defense,
Strong Tower and my best Friend,
omnipotent, omnipresent, soon coming King,
Alpha, Omega, Lord of ev'rything.

Pondering Andrew’s comment and reflecting on those Names reminded me that Henry Blackaby has compiled a rather complete list of the Names of our God from Scripture, and that list comprises the meat of this week’s Laptop. I encourage you to read and pray through this list over several days, allowing God’s Spirit to take you deeper into God’s Character and into the wonderful Promises contained in those Names.
